

People

IT'S THE SEASON FOR

The Man In Your Life

1 Squeezebox This smart little box connects Internet tunes to your stereo, streaming online playlists through your own speakers; www.slimdevices.com; 650-210-9400; starting at $249

2 John Coltrane, Fearless Leader Jazz fans will dig Coltrane's surging tenor sax on this 48-track collection featuring his first studio sessions as a band leader. $47.99

3 The Zero Jess Walter's darkly satiric post-9/11 thriller about a blackout-plagued New York City cop ensnared in a government conspiracy. $25.95

4 The Lives of Rocks Back with 10 more short stories of nature and isolation, Rick Bass captures quiet human truths amidst his astonishing portraits of life in the wilderness. $23

5 Greetings from E Street: The Story of Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band Head down Thunder Road with photos and memorabilia of the Boss and company. $35

6 Playaway portable audio books Hear works by the likes of John Grisham, Stephen King and Ernest Hemingway, each on its own mp3 player; www.playaway

digital.com; 877-893-0808; starts at $29.99

7 Scarface: The World is Yours and Money, Power, Respect. Say hello to his little time waster: He'll love these two video games based on the Al Pacino gangster classic. $39.99 and $49.99, respectively

8 Bob Dylan, Modern Times The Bard shows why he is an artist for all times on this highly acclaimed return to form. $18.98

EVA LONGORIA
On Stocking Stuffers

"I like to give how-to books: 'How to please a woman,' or 'How to keep the romance happy.' Just a little hint!"

